Description

BANKASTRAAT 68- ARCHIPEL

Nice and spacious apartment of approx. 68 m2 with a large sun terrace located in the popular Archipelbuurt! The Archipelbuurt, also known as the Indische Buurt, is a neighborhood in the center of The Hague. The district borders the Willemspark, Zorgvliet, Van Stolkpark and Scheveningse Bosjes districts, and Benoordenhout. The Archipelbuurt was built between 1860 and 1890 on the former Duinweide estate. Living in the Archipel neighborhood means living in a neighborhood with character, which is also equipped with all conveniences. So there is that cozy Bankastraat with terraces, restaurants and a varied range of shops including Albert Heijn, Gall and Gall and well-known delicacy shops. Within a few minutes you are on the highways to Amsterdam, Rotterdam and Utrecht. The Hague Central Station is within walking distance. The center of The Hague and the boulevard of Scheveningen can be reached in about 10 minutes by bike!

Layout:

Communal entrance on the ground floor: stairs to the 1st floor, access to the apartment with a small hallway which gives access to the toilet and bathroom. Wonderfully light living room located at the rear with t.t. outdoor space. Also located at the rear, spacious kitchen with all appliances including washing machine / dryer / fridge / freezer and electric hob. Spacious bedroom located at the front which gives access to the front side room (study) .
Particularities:

• Rent is excluding an advance payment of €200 for GW
• Own electricity meter
• Housing permit applicable
• Pets are not allowed
